Field Secretary S. R. North Speaks Before Board of Trade Meeting-Sees Possibilities in Filled in Land in Yantic Cove-Playgrounds Should Last All the Year Round.

At the June meeting of the Norwich Board of Trade held Tuesday evening in the Buckingham Memoriai these was a very interesting address by S. R. North, field secretary of the Playground and Recreation society of America, upon the playground and recreation movement. Mr. North's topic was Playgrounds, with reference to the situation in Norwich.

At 8 o'clock, in the absence of the president, James C. Macpherson, the meeting was called to order by Vice President Frank J. King, and the first business was the hearing of Secretary thenry W. Tibbits' report of the last meeting. The report was approved as read and accepted. One new candidate, George T. Higgins, manager of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company meeting. Mr. King then spoke of a bill which now before congress and which reires all civil service employes on half states for a period of 30 years or more and asked the Board of Trade members what action they wished to take in the matter in regard to a favorable or unfavorable vote. A motion was made and seconded that the bill be approved, and it was so approved. It was also voted to send copies of the bill to the state congressmen and senators.

Introduced Mr. North. Ag there was no other business to come before the meeting, Mr. King then introduced Mr. North, who said he felt at home in speaking before a board of trade or a chamber of commerce on the subject of playgrounds and recreation, as he has made a care-ful study of the subject. For three months he was in Indianapolis making a recreation survey of that city, and a month before that he was at Port-land, Me, in connection with the play-

I make this statement, which I am ready to prove: I found you in a compromising position with a married woman in your room, which is room No. 19, on the morning of July 3d, 1912. The room is in the Aliue building. It is my intention to send a postal to all of your folks, and I dare you to bring suit, or any pf your people who are interested in this affair. If I am annoyed by you any longer I will air this matter in the courts.

JOHN DONOVAN.

In his answer the defendant asserts that some of the words alleged to have been spoken by him were not false and malicious, but were true, but were not spoken with malicious intent. The defendant also asserts that the words alleged to have been written by him were true, making his defense on the ground of justification.

First Witness.

First Witness. Joseph D. Harris, printer, was the first witness called by Attorney Doug-lass for the plaintiff. His office is in lass for the plaintiff. His office is in the same building as the office of the plaintiff, Mr. Craney, occupying rooms 15 and 16 on the third floor, while Mr. Craney's was on the second floor.

Mr. Harris testified to Mr. Donovan coming to his office door and saying that Mr. Craney and Mrs. Church were in Mr. Craney's office and had been there about two hours. This was probably about 5 o'clock on the day in question. Mr. Dorovan said he had three detectives posted at different placed in charge 12 months in the year and these cities have as well as a superintendent of schools a superintendent of recreation. Why is it? We ail have been children, and some of us have children. Childhood is a universal phenomenon that we cannot get away from. Our children, whether we like it or not, are going to grow up. They have a natural instinct for play, and this instinct for self expression has away from. Our children, whether we three detectives posted at different pike it or not, are going to grow up. Piles for State Pier. Four-masted schooner Blancre C. Pendleton of Jacksonville, Fla., finished discharging a cargo of creosoted piles for the steamship terminal at East New London on Tuesday. The piles have been stored on lighters and the Central Vermont dock. The supply constitutes about a third of all that will be required for the big pier. Stone work has begun in earnest and already about 150 feet of the granite walls of bulkhead have been laid. Four-masted schooner Blancre

A SCIENTIFIC WAY TO REMOVE Unsightly Hair

Apply a few drops of El Rado, the liquid hair remover, on the growth, after washing off with a little plain water not a trace of it will remain. The ingredients in El Rado are used by many physicians for exactly the same purpose, which proves conclusively how perfectly harmless it is. This wonderful preparation is the result of a long series of scientific experiments, and is proving a veritable godsend to women troubled with hair growths on lip, chin, cheek, neck or arms. Use a simple application of El Rado to saturate the hair; it is harmlessly dissolved, and in a few moments is gone, leaving the skin smooth, clear and velvety. The action of El Rado is absolutely safe, sure and thorough.

El Rado is coming to be regarded by society women as indispensable as face cream or toilet powder. Test it on your arm; prove for yourself k will do everything claimed. Your money back if you are not entirely satisfied. In 50c and $1 size bottles at all lending drug and department stores, or direct from the Pligrim Mfg. Co., New York, Valuable information sent on request. In this city, El Rado is sold and recommended by: Broadway Pharmacy, Lee & Osgood. Broadway Pharmacy, Lee & Osgoo Porteous & Mitchell.
